It's All About Math Club

September Welcome Newsletter

Welcome! Thanks for joining IAAM!

IAAM club would like to wish all our first year students a warm welcome to UofT, and if you're a second, third or fourth year student, then welcome back! We hope you've had a great first week of classes, and are SO excited for the academic year ahead! In this newsletter, we'll be featuring all the important upcoming dates regarding Instructor training for class visits, our first general meeting, and our first club event of the year. If you have any questions about events, the club, or opportunities to get involved this year, feel free to email us at iaamuoft@gmail.com!

"IAAM is a club that hopes to promote, math and motivate high school and elementary students to get excited about this subject and its many applications."

Instructor Training

September 23rd, 11am-1pm

September 24th, 12:30-2pm

September 28th, 2-4pm

Want to become an instructor and teach classes of kids (in various grades) who are excited about math? Come attend our instructor training dates to get certified! You only need to attend one date, so come to whichever date works best with your schedule. You'll receive a certificate of qualification for completing the training, and will be able to start teaching over at the Field's Institute whenever you want! A google sign-up form will be sent around soon for volunteers interested in this opportunity.

Movie Night

September 26th, 6-8:30pm

Join us for some popcorn and drinks as we watch Robin Williams and Matt Damon in Good Will Hunting! Fun Fact: Good Will Hunting was actually filmed on campus, specifically McLennan Physical Labs! Stay tuned for updates about the location of Movie Night, and feel free to bring friends!
